This application form can be found under the Housing Services "How Do I apply?" section of the Social Services Access Site at www.adsab.on.ca/ssas

What is Housing Services?

Housing Services is housing in which the government (subsidizes) or helps you pay your rent. Housing Services is intended for households with low to moderate incomes, who may be unable to find suitable, affordable housing. In a subsidized unit, your portion of the rent is approximately 30% of your gross household monthly income. (i.e. if gross household monthly income is $1200.00 per month, rent may be $360.00 per month. ($$1200.00 \times 30\% = \360.00))

Housing Services is not emergency housing. In most cases throughout the Algoma District there is a wait list for subsidized housing units. You must first submit an application for Housing Services. If you are eligible for Housing Services, your name will be placed on the wait list until a vacant unit becomes available and offered to you.

There are three types of subsidized housing providers: Non-Profit Housing is owned and managed by community based organizations. Public Housing was formerly known as Algoma Housing and is now owned and operated by Algoma District Services Administration Board (ADSAB). Rent Supplement Program -ADSAB has entered into agreements with private rental landlords for units to be rented on a rent-geared-to income basis to qualified applicants. Tenants pay a rent-geared-to-income to the landlord and ADSAB subsidizes the difference up to the agreed market rent for the unit. Strong Communities Rent Supplement Program is a new program with greater flexibility in providing rent supplements to households in need of assistance with unique needs.

If you are interested in applying for any of the above types of housing, complete the attached application form.

Who can apply for Housing Services?

You can apply if you can verify:

- You are at least 16 years old.
- You and all members of the household are legal residents of Canada or refugee claimants.
- You and all members of the household do not owe money to a Housing Services Provider.
- You and all members of the household are not currently under an order of deportation, departure or exclusion to leave Canada.
- You and all members of the household have not been convicted of an offence in relation to rent-geared-to-income assistance by a court of law or the Landlord & Tenant Board.

When will I be notified regarding the status of my application?

ADSAB will send you written notification within 7 business days of receipt of your application. This notification will advise you that your application is under review. It will also advise you of any information missing on the application. You will be required to submit the missing information by a certain date in order for your application to be considered for further review.

The decision regarding eligibility for rent-geared-to-income assistance will be made no later than 30 calendar days from the date of receipt of your completed application.

My situation/information has changed since my last application. What should I do?

You are required to report all changes to your application information within 10 days. Examples of changes could be, but are not limited to:

- Changes to address, phone number or message/contact number
- Changes in your household income.
- Changes in family/household size.

ADSAB will also contact you by mail or phone approximately once per year to review your application/file for continued eligibility.

NOTE: Your name will be removed from the Registry (wait list) if we cannot contact you or if you do not respond to our requests. Please ensure you keep your contact information up to date. You can do so by submitting the Housing Services Information Update Form.

I am currently on the waiting list for Housing Services. How long will I have to wait?

Your rank on the Registry (waiting list) primarily depends on the date your completed application was received. You will be offered a suitable unit as soon as one becomes available. The length of waiting time varies with each location and unit. Some locations have longer waiting lists than others which simply translates to a higher demand for that specific location and unit. Some locations have no or short waiting lists. Your patience is appreciated during the waiting period.

NOTE: Special consideration may be given to your application if you or members of your household are abused by a person whom you live with. Please review the Request for Special Priority Status section.

Can I choose where I want to live?

Yes. You must indicate your choice of Housing Service's Project locations on the application form in order for your application to be considered complete.

You are able to choose more than one location. Your name will be added to the Registry (waiting list) for each location of which you are eligible.

If at any time, you wish to update or change your requested locations, please complete a Housing Services Project Listing-Update Form. This form must be completed and forwarded to ADSAB in order to update your file.

Can I choose the size of unit I want?

You can indicate what type of unit you want to live in however, the size of unit (number of bedrooms) that you are offered will be determined by the size and composition of your household, according to the ADSAB Local Occupancy Standards.

To summarize, the ADSAB Local Occupancy Standards states the largest unit a household may be eligible for is as follows:

- One bedroom for spouses and same-sex partners
- One bedroom for each additional member of the household, and
- One additional bedroom under the following specific circumstances:
 - a. a spouse requires a separate bedroom due to a disability or medical condition
 - b. a bedroom is required to store medical equipment
 - c. a bedroom is required to accommodate an individual who provides medical care to a member of the household
 - d. a member of the household is pregnant
 - e. a member has joint custody of a child who needs overnight accommodations

How will I be contacted when a unit becomes available? What happens next?

All offers for Housing Services are done by mail or phone and require your immediate response. Applicants are given 5 days to respond to an offer, so it is very important that you communicate all contact information changes with ADSAB as they occur. If you do not respond to an offer within 5 days, the offer will be treated as a decline.

You have the option to accept or refuse a unit offered to you. Once you accept the unit of your choice, you will be scheduled for a Rent-Geared-to-Income Appointment at your ADSAB office. This calculation will determine the amount of rent you will be required to pay. You will also sign the lease for the unit. You will only be given a key to your residence once you have completed the RGI interview and the signing of the lease.

NOTE: Your third refusal of a rent-geared-to-income unit offer will result in your application being cancelled. Your name will also be removed from the waiting list. In the event of a future reapplication, you will be placed at the bottom of the waiting list.

How much rent will I pay?

Rent-geared-to income is based on 30% of your gross monthly income.

If you are in receipt of the Ontario Works or Ontario Disability Support Program, a standard social assistance rent scale will be used.

Additional charges may also apply, depending on the project you are housed in. Further details will be explained to you at the Rent-Geared-to-Income interview.

I require a special unit due to a disability. How do I apply for one?

Some housing providers have wheelchair accessible units or units which are equipped with certain features (such as no stairs). If you require a special type of unit due to medical reasons, please ensure you indicate this in the appropriate section of the application form. You will be placed on the Registry (waiting list) accordingly for the next available special unit.

I am currently involved in an abusive relationship with the person I live with. How will this affect my application for Housing Services?

If you are currently experiencing abuse from a person that you live with and need to move due to this abuse, you should apply for the Special Priority along with your application for Housing Services. In order to qualify for the special priority, you must complete a Request for Special Priority Form. You are also required to provide written, supporting documentation from a professional to verify your situation. This documentation must state that a member of your household has been:

- subject to abuse from another individual
- the abusing individual resides with the abused member
- the abused member intends to permanently live apart from the abuser.

If you have already separated from the abuser, you must apply for special priority status within three months from the date of separation

NOTE: Special Priority rent-geared-to-income household member(s) are not required to pursue specified incomes if the pursuit of the income will place the member(s)'s personal safety at risk.
